

Production écrite niveau A2 :

Emma Gonzalez is an American teen activist, she was born on November 11, 1999. She survived a shooting in her school in Parkland, Florida, in February 2018. 17 of her friends died that day, 15 were injured. She made a speech one month later, it was a very poignant speech. She wanted to pay tribute to her friends with minutes of silence. She is now committed in the fight for gun control in the United States. She thinks without guns, this would not have happened.

Production écrite niveau B1 :

Emma Gonzalez is an American teen activist, she was born on November 11, 1999.

Firstly, she survived a shooting in her school in Parkland, Florida, in February 2018. On that day, 17 of her friends died and 15 were injured.

Secondly, she made a speech one month later. It was a very moving and poignant speech because she wanted to pay tribute to her friends with minutes of silence.

Thirdly, she is now committed in the fight for gun control in the United States. So, she thinks without guns, this would not have happened.

Finally, in my opinion Emma Gonzalez is very brave and her speech was powerful. Moreover, I think the fight for gun control in the USA is very important.

En rouge: les mots de liaison.

En bleu: les mots exprimant une opinion (expression, adjectif).